

Minimum Standards for Writing Intensive Courses

In Psychology

Psychology Department, Clarion University

These standards are for courses with a “W” flag.

Each professor may have additional standards depending on the level of the class and the type of assignment.

In addition, students should be familiar with “Writing Standards for Psychology Courses” which will also apply to Writing Intensive courses.

Minimum standards for all Writing Intensive Courses:

1. At least 20 written pages will be required (as per General Education Requirements).
2. Students will have opportunities to revise one or more papers, after feedback (as per General Education Requirements).
3. Students will be required to use the latest APA Publication Manual or a “How to Write Psychology Papers” book, as selected by the departmental faculty. This will be indicated in the course syllabi.
